

Petition for Ethnic Studies Department

New Mexico State University (NMSU) has a 50-years-plus history of community, students, staff, and faculty organizing to create Ethnic Studies programs. NMSU is in Las Cruces, New Mexico, in the Borderlands near El Paso, Texas, and Cd. Juárez, Chihuahua, Mexico. The university is a federally designated Hispanic Serving, Minority Serving, Land Grant Institution that currently houses Native American Studies within the Anthropology Department, Chicano Studies within the Languages & Linguistics Department, and Borderlands & Ethnic Studies within the Criminal Justice Department. There is currently an Africana Studies program in development, and this needs serious support also. Faculty, students, and community members are urging administrators to develop a new department that would house these academic programs together and provide infrastructure, including faculty hires, needed to advance Ethnic Studies.

A 2018 legal ruling in the class action suit, Martinez/Yazzie v. State of New Mexico, calls on the New Mexico Public Education Department to offer curriculum and equitable support to underserved and minority students. A 2017 Resolution in the Las Cruces Public Schools (serving over 25,000 students, of whom 75% are students of color) states that an Ethnic Studies curriculum will be implemented in grades K-12. New Mexico State University is not prepared to respond to these local, statewide, or national needs for critical-thinking, culturally-sustaining curriculum and pedagogy. The state is over 65% people of color, with many communities and counties being over 95% Chicano, Mexicano, and/or Native American/Indigenous. Over 23 tribal nations and other Indigenous communities are located in what is now New Mexico.

Please sign on to support the creation of an Ethnic Studies Department at NMSU with infrastructural support that appropriately and equitably centers historically underserved New Mexican students and communities at an HSI, MSI, Land Grant University. Thank you!
